Biography

George Hamilton Stanaland was a resident of Troy in Pike County, Alabama, during the 1920s and 1930s. He was a brother to the grandfather of Dorothy Stanaland Samuel, the donor of these papers.

During the 1920s and 1930s, George Hamilton Stanaland kept up an active correspondence with family members in North Carolina and Texas, seeking to discover genealogical and historical information about the Stanaland family.

Scope and Contents

The collection consists of incoming letters from cousins to members of the Stanaland family living in North Carolina and Texas. Also included are letters from an S. L. Stanaland to his brother, W. H. Stanaland (location unknown). Families in the correspondence include the Lennon (North Carolina), Mintz (North Carolina), Richburg (Texas), and Stanaland (Texas).

Apart from the family history information contained in the letters, the correspondence also includes information regarding agriculture and the early years of the depression in North Carolina and Texas. For the most part, however, the information included deals primarily with family matters.

Arrangement

The material is arranged into the following Series:

Series I.

CORRESPONDENCE. 1926, 1931-1933, 1936-1937 Folders 1-9.

Arranged alphabetically by name of correspondent, and there under chronologically.

Correspondence primarily consists of incoming correspondence to George Hamilton Stanaland, with a single letter addressed to his brother W. H. Stanaland. Of note is a letter from a postmaster in North Carolina, W. F. Prince, identifying potential relatives for George Stanaland.
